

I am opposed to allowing former vendors to continue to call for 18 months after I've cancelled their services. If I wanted to deal with them, I would not have cancelled them! The right to privacy and peace in my home is extremely important to me and my life is much less hectic and annoying since Wisconsin passed its no call list. Please do not weaken the state law in any way. Thank you for your attention.